CHARLIE SCHMIDT ACCEPTS DEMOCRATIC PARTY NOMINATION FOR JANUARY 6TH ELECTION IN 77TH DISTRICT

RICHMOND & CHESTERFIELD, VA —

I am proud to accept the nomination of the Democratic party for the 77th District House of Delegates. Our campaign team extends congratulations to Michelle Mosby and Gregory Powers, both of whom are committed public servants who show up for our community every day. They ran inspiring campaigns, and I look forward to working with them both to build a stronger 77th.

The 2025 election cycle has been a historic one for Virginia Democrats. Our party has not only won three executive seats, we have also seen a 13 seat gain in the legislative assembly, and a shift blue in every single district across the state.

This is a movement. It is a mandate to govern. It comes with a duty to return that power to the people who granted it through coordinated action. The vision for the Democratic Party that I will bring to the polls on January 6th is just this: a legislative agenda for working people, by working people.

The issues we face in the 77th district resonate across the state. Working families struggle with insufficient wages stacked against skyrocketing costs of very basic needs like housing, food, and healthcare. Access to clean air and water is not guaranteed. Our schools are critically under-funded. Families live in fear of immigration raids that divide and terrorize.

The people of Virginia have a right to live with dignity and security. That is just as true in Richmond and Chesterfield County as it is in Loudon, Norfolk, Danville, or Wise. It is the duty of the Democratic Party to deliver this vision. If elected I intend to serve the 77th in solidarity with the whole of the commonwealth.

Let's get out the vote on January 6th!
